

Alan Nathan Levy

January 5, 1943 - July 14, 2019

Alan Nathan Levy 76, of Panama City Beach, Florida, and formerly of Atlanta, Georgia, passed Sunday, July 14, 2019.

Alan was born to Seymour Levy and Pearl Levy (née Scheyer) January 5, 1943 in Chicago, Illinois. He graduated from Roosevelt High School in 1961 and received a Master's Degree from the University of Illinois in 1967. As a young man, Alan was active in the Boy Scouts and developed an unending love of the outdoors and fishing. Alan was an athlete and especially enjoyed playing basketball, among other sports.

He leaves as his legacy, two daughters, Susie Richter (Scott) and Samantha Hefner (Nathan) and 4 grandchildren, Ross, Alec, Mallory, and Everly. He is also survived by his wife of 32 years, Helene Levy and her children, Leigh Whatley (Bill), Amy Obermeyer (Roger), Chuck Antignane, Chris Antignane, John Antignane and 4 step-grandchildren, Jeremy (Lizzie), Ryan, Laney and Carter, and one step-great-granddaughter, Emerson.

Alan began his career in computers, as an engineer. He then became a businessman, after which he had a long career in the automotive industry. Finally, he worked in healthcare. Alan's passion was always writing and he became a published author in the final year of his life. Alan's dry sense of humor and quick wit highlight the many good memories cherished by his family and friends.

A memorial is scheduled for Saturday, August 3, 2 PM at Mayes Ward-Dobbins Funeral Home. A reception will follow.
