“ I believe I met Ann 1956. I was 7 years old when my family moved to Roosevelt N.Y. I would play with her Brother Andy all the time in our yards. our house were back to back with a small fence separating the yards. I would play jump rope and hop scotch on the side walk with Ann, and she always won! It's a girls game, but I gave it a good try. After that we moved away and Ann's family went to Baldwin. I remember riding my bike all the way to Baldwin to see Andy and Ann, then I moved again and we lost contact for like 10 years. I was playing softball at a field and the opposing team had Andy on their team and we hooked up again. I ended doing working for her ex husband John doing auto body work. We would go out for dinner a lot and had lots of fun and great memories. One occasion we went to dinner at a restaurant and there was a man sitting alone at a table on the other side of the room with a very sad face so Ann said why don't you go over there Joey and make that man laugh with your magic. I used to show Ann my magic tricks all the time. So I got up and went over to the man and showed him a couple of my tricks. Well, he busted out laughing and so did Ann! She laughed so hard she was crying with happy tears in her eyes. Needless to say it was a memorable night. Dear Ann Loved to Laugh, I can hear her now! Thanks for those memories Ann. May you rest in Peace. Joey Buscemi

“ Ann was our cousin. We lived in the same town, Baldwin. We have so many great memories of our family get togethers in Meme's garage and at Jones Beach and our barbeques at Eisenhower Park. We are so thankful to have seen her and everyone at Debbie's wedding. We had such a good time reminiscing about old times. Even though we don't see each other we still feel a closeness with all of you. We didn't realize the pain she was enduring and she will be missed by us all.

“ Thank you cousins. I treasure the memory of all of us being together at my wedding. I hope to visit Long Island after the time of COVID and see you all. Life is too short. Love, Debbie.

“ God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be.

So He wrapped his arms around you,
and whispered, 'Come to me'.

You didn't deserve what you went through,
So He gave you rest.

God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best

And when I saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain

I could not wish you back
To suffer that again.

“ [i carry your heart with me(i carry it in]
BY E. E. CUMMINGS
i carry your heart with me(i carry it in my heart)i am never without it(anywhere
i go you go,my dear;and whatever is done
by only me is your doing,my darling)

i fear
no fate(for you are my fate,my sweet)i want
no world(for beautiful you are my world,my true)
and it's you are whatever a moon has always meant
and whatever a sun will always sing is you

here is the deepest secret nobody knows (here is the root of the root and the bud of the bud
and the sky of the sky of a tree called life;which grows higher than soul can hope or mind can hide)
and this is the wonder that's keeping the stars apart

i carry your heart(i carry it in my heart)

“ One Art

The art of losing isn't hard to master;
so many things seem filled with the intent
to be lost that their loss is no disaster,

Lose something every day. Accept the fluster of lost door keys, the hour badly spent.
The art of losing isn't hard to master.

Then practice losing farther, losing faster:
places, and names, and where it was you meant to travel. None of these will bring disaster.

I lost my mother's watch. And look! my last, or next-to-last, of three loved houses went.
The art of losing isn't hard to master.

I lost two cities, lovely ones. And, vaster,
some realms I owned, two rivers, a continent.
I miss them, but it wasn't a disaster.

- Even losing you (the joking voice, a gesture
I love) I shan't have lied. It's evident
the art of losing's not too hard to master
though it may look like (Write it!) like disaster.

“ My heart is broken at the loss of my big sister Ann. She was zany and eccentric, but had a good heart. I knew she was not well but somehow I did not emotionally get that she would ever leave us. I have so many memories. She loved to laugh. She loved to reminisce about the past. She loved to instigate fun trouble. She enjoyed a good practical joke. Ann could order food at a restaurant that would boggle the mind: think Sally on steroids. We did not always see eye to eye, but we were there for each other when it counted. She is pain free and at peace now. I will miss my big sister Ann for eternity.

“ Both our sons Jordan and Jarrod worked with Ann. They loved Ann and Ann was always so sweet to both of them. I enjoyed dropping by to give her a hug and tell her I loved her. She will be missed.

“ I have wonderful memories of her at Chick-Fil-A. My family and I were regulars for lunch and loved to visit with her. She was so warm and friendly. She was a blessing to us. We pray for her family during this time. God bless.

“ Oh no!!! Can't believe this!! My mom, Lois Rutan, worked at MariettaTrade Center CFA on Hwy. 41 with Ann until her sudden death in 2001...Danny Daniels loved those two!They were best buds at work and away from work! I stopped to see Ann at Johnson Ferry often and learned she was sick a few months back...got her number from her sister, Pat, and called her...she was recuperating well...I haven't checked on her since Covid hit...I am heartbroken! Prayers for comfort and peace for her family...and Mom, your buddy Ann has arrived...I'm sure you greeted her in Heaven!!
