After college, he married Marjorie Frazier and joined the Air Force as a pilot. He was stationed at Edwards Air Force base in Victorville, California, during the Korean War. After leaving the Air Force, Art and Marjorie and the family moved to St. Louis and also lived in Winnetka, Illinois.

Art is preceded in death by his parents, Arthur and Anastasia; his sister and brother-in-law, Anne Marie and Emil Schmitt; his wife, Marge; and his partner of many years, Joyce Orr. He is survived by his brother and sister-in-law, John and Peggy Heberger of Jackson, Wyoming; and his four sons, Bill (Isabell) of Marietta, Mike of Roswell, David (Beth) of Kennesaw, and Tim of Woodstock; his grandchildren, Ashley Schmidt (Doug), Pauline Capps (Clay), Will Heberger, and Heather Heberger; great grandchildren, Kaiden and Knox Schmidt.

Art was a beloved son, brother, husband, father, great grandfather, and friend. He loved his family and friends and felt privileged to serve his country in the Air Force. He thanks his employers through the years for the opportunity to provide for his family. He has left a great legacy for all of us and his memory will live on through his family and friends.

Special thanks to Susan Smith and Raven Young for their friendship to our family and the great care they provided to Dad in his final years. Thanks also to the staff at WellStar Hospice near Kennestone Hospital for the gentle transition into God's care.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions be made to a charity of your choice in memory of Arthur Heberger.

“ On behalf of the office staff at BrightStar I would like to offer our sincere condolences and sympathy on your loss of Art. We knew of him as a very caring man as he looked after Joyce Orr in her final years and felt privileged to provide care for him when he himself needed assistance and hope we were able to provide some comfort and quality to his life in his final years, especially through his last caregiver, Raven, who spoke so fondly of Art and will miss him greatly.
