

Betty Smith

June 6, 1935 - June 10, 2021

Betty Smith, 86, of Marietta, Georgia, passed away peacefully at her home on June 10, 2021. She was born to Bertha and Charles Jenkins on June 6, 1935, in Franklin County, Ohio. There she finished her education, later moving with her family to the Miami, Florida, area. There she worked for the First National Bank of Miami in the Bank Wire System where daily over 50 million dollars were wired all over the world - quite a fete in the early 1950s. Later Betty met Rubble through one of his army buddies, first corresponding by mail, then meeting face to face which led to their marriage on February 3, 1968, a union that lasted 51 years when Rubble passed away in 2019. They lived in Smyrna, Jasper, and Marietta, and were members of Olive Springs Baptist Church. Words that describe some of Betty's qualities are loving and supportive wife, always smiling and cheerful, great sense of humor, appreciative, good cook, meticulous housekeeper. She loved animals, especially cats and dogs. One time she found a baby squirrel which she bottle fed until it could survive on it own. It would regularly come back to her porch for food. She and Rubble loved collecting antiques. She loved reading, especially her Bible, as well as many other Christian and educational books. As her hearing and eyesight deteriorated, she enjoyed watching Andy Griffin and Mash on TV. Betty was predeceased by her husband Rubble, her parents and siblings. Survivors are her nieces, nephews and in-laws. Especially her brother-in-law, Eugene Smith, who has been her caregiver since the loss of her husband.
