“ When you are in high school, you meet a lot of your friends' dads. Many were not so much interested in you because you were just another one. My friend, Renee, had a dad that had a great laugh and enjoyed being with Renee's friends. I was lucky enough to be invited on a vacation with the Rhoades family to Florida. The car ride honestly was a scream! Dusty and Sandy in the front and Renee and I in back. I will never forget that vacation.

When Renee got married, I was a bridesmaid. Pretty powerful honor! Dusty and Sandy had moved from Smyrna to Woodstock, I think. Dusty and Sandy threw a party and I was the first one there. He made a liver pate from scratch. I have never forgotten how impressed I was!

I remember Renee's father the most, though, from the Smyrna house. He was a fun and loving man and I also remember how much he loved his wife and daughter. He was extremely kind to me and I hope that we can all remember the love that he gave each and every one of us.
