“ Words cannot express how my heart goes out to the family of Casey. May you find peace and comfort thru family and friends who love you dearly as well as all of us who are continually praying that you gain the strength to endure. (Revelation 21:3 & 4 and Romans 12:12)

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find hope and comfort in these words found in the Bible at 1Corinthians 15:16: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." Yes, death is an enemy for everyone alive on this earth today. What a wonderful promise from our Loving Heavenly Father that death will be no more. Rev 21:3-5

“ I am Casey's teacher at the technical college where she attended. On behalf of myself and Casey's classmates, we are all deeply moved by Casey's passing. On the first day of class, she made a point of introducing herself to me. I could tell from that first moment that she was a warm, sweet person, and that turned out to be exactly how she was. We are all at a loss for words.

To Casey's family, friends, and to those who knew her well, please accept our sincere condolences. She will not be soon forgotten. May god help you all find peace at this very difficult time.

“ My beautiful Casey, no words can begin to describe how much I miss you. You have been taken from us with so many dreams left to fulfill. You had so much life yet to live and memories to make with Lilly and Abbey as I had made with you. I have some comfort in knowing that you are with your Dad and not alone. When you were born you were such a beautiful baby girl. Your Dad and I were so happy and proud that day. I never knew you could have such an indescribable and strong love for someone until that day. We loved to take you to the park where your favorite thing was feeding the ducks. Because of this we came up with the nick name “silly goose” and it has stuck with you your whole life. You would call and I would answer the phone “Hi, Goose” and you seemed to love it.

As a little girl you loved clothes, you would drive me crazy by changing your clothes 4 to 5 times a day and then throw the clean ones on the floor, something you never out grew. Since Abby has been with us I see she has developed this same trait and I have to hide her clothes too. Abby is truly your child and Scott and I are cherishing every moment we have with her. You were such a happy child that loved life. You were so girly with the clothes and ballet but then you had such a tom-boy side that loved 4 wheelers, soccer and jumping on the trampoline with Matthew.

You never changed through your little girl years to your teen years, except for your discovery of boys. You were a challenge but always did what you wanted, you were very head strong and stubborn which came from me. You were always bubbly and full of life which made you a great cheerleader, your greatest joy. In the summer you were my little fish that loved spending most of your days in the pool. You were so much like your Dad when it came to being outgoing and talking to everyone, there was never anyone you wouldn't talk to.

I have been very thankful and blessed for all the time we have had together. My fondest memories are being there for you when Lilly and Abbey came into our lives. I remember you being so anxious for Lilly to get here that you drove Connie, Adam, Aunt Di-Di and me nuts by making 4 trips to the hospital insisting that you were in labor. You were such a dramatic girl but that was part of your great personality that we loved. Of course I was just a minute late with Abbey but I could see the Pride and joy in Neenee's eyes that she was there for you. Watching you grow with your daughters and the love you had for them will be in my heart always. I promise you that Lilly and Abby will always know how much you love them and know that you are always with them.

Casey, I will miss you so much. I'll miss our girl days together of getting manicures and pedicures. I will miss our shopping and lunches together. I will miss your phone calls about how your day was going and talking to you about mine. I will miss our Holidays together and your delicious green bean casserole. You always offered to bring it because mine tasted horrible. I will miss your hugs and kisses and watching you show your love and affection for your daughters. Your smile has brought so much happiness to so many people and has touched so many hearts. Because of this I know that you would want us to celebrate your life not mourn your passing. Through all our tears, the memories of you still bring us laughter and happiness. I will thank God every day for the time we shared together. I love you so much Casey.

Love,
Mom

“ Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather, openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy. - Unknown

Casey I saw this verse and it reminded me of you because of that beautiful mischievous smile of yours. Every time you flashed that smile it warmed my heart because it was so much of you. I still think of how you always ran down to my house when you were younger with a bowl for my cereal and leftovers, which I gladly shared!!! You will truly be missed by our family and I am not quite sure how the void will be filled yet....Love you Casey, I will look to the stars for you!!!

“ Ah Sweet Casey- First time I met you your dad and my sister, your bonus mom were getting married, you ran up and smiled that beautiful smile and said "you are my aunt Karen now too, I love you"- Casey never missed an opportunity to tell those that she loved "I Love You". Casey, I loved you the moment I first met you and I will love and cherish the memory of you all the days of my life" I will see you in Heaven sweet girl.

“ The first time I met Casey I was going to her house with my new boyfriend. This beautiful young woman sat on the floor with braided blonde pig tails and played with her daughters most of the night. I remember thinking how cute she was and how I loved her smile. You will be missed Casey.
