“ I enjoyed working with Don 45 years ago, and have enjoyed reconnecting with him in our retirement years. I know his presence and guidance will be missed by many.

“ Don and I have been friends since we were about seven years old. We used to visit at each other's home and I especially liked going to Don's since he lived near the Chattahoochee River and what boy doesn't like to play on the banks of a river. We attended the same Church and loved to go on camping trips with our RA group. We also attended the same high school and even though we went separate ways after high school and didn't see each other for years, we reconnected about 15 years ago and it was like we were seven again. Don was always a genuine friend and what stands out most in my mind is that he always kept his Christian faith and lived it. He will truly be missed but none more so than his family who he dearly loved. Heaven just welcomed home a true saint. Fondly, Bob Layfield
