

Doris R. Kapperman

November 19, 1927 - July 6, 2012

Doris R. Kapperman passed away peacefully on July 6, 2012, from complications of Alzheimer's disease. A native of Owensboro, Kentucky, Doris moved to Marietta in 1963 with her late husband, Rev. Paul Kapperman. She taught 3rd grade at Bells Ferry Elementary for several years before becoming the P.E. teacher at Daniell Middle School for the next 22 years. Upon retirement, Doris and her husband moved to Lake Placid, Florida. They moved back to Marietta in 2005.

Doris loved her family, her friends, and her church. She served the Lord for her entire life in various ways. In the early days of Covenant Presbyterian Church, services were held in the living room of her home. She was an active choir member for 45 years. She had a beautiful voice and was often asked to sing solos. She taught Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, and loved to help in the nursery. She was a true servant of God and will be missed dearly by her family and friends. Doris enjoyed spending time with her loved ones, cross stitching, and baking.

Doris was preceded in death by her husband and her brother. She is survived by her daughter, Sharon Rhoades (Russell), her son, Bruce Kapperman (Pam), 5 grandchildren, 9 great-grandchildren, 3 sisters, 1 brother, and many nieces and nephews.

Her funeral will be held at Pleasant Hill Presbyterian Church, Owensboro, Kentucky, at 2:00 p.m., Sunday, July 8, 2012, with a Visitation on Saturday, July 7, from 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. She will be laid to rest next to her husband of 62 years. Following her funeral, there will be a memorial service held at Covenant Presbyterian Church, Marietta, at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, July 14, 2012.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Covenant Presbyterian Church, 2881 Canton Rd, Marietta, GA 30066. Mayes Ward-Dobbins Funeral Home & Crematory, Marietta, is in charge of arrangements. www.mayeswarddobbins.com

“ Doris was a wonderful blessing to First Presbyterian Church in Lake Placid where she sang in the choir, rang bells with the Praise Ringers, served as a Deacon, helped in the nursery, and loved and encouraged many. Some children were especially privileged to know her as "Nana Doris," and delighted in spending time with her as she loved them and showed them God's love in countless ways. - Ray Cameron
