“ My Great Friend from My Teens and High school, I lived close to Greg Millsaps and had some of the best times of my life with him. When I heard about what happen, I though I should tell you how sorry I am to hear what happen. I hope and pray for the rest of the family. Grief can be so hard during the holidays, but our special memories help us cope. In Great Memories of my Best Friend, Sincerely, Eric Justin Thomas

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find hope and comfort in these words found in the Bible at 1Corinthians 15:26: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." Yes, death is an enemy of all those alive today, but what a wonderful promise from our loving Heavenly Father, that death will be no more. Rev 21:3-5

“ Greg was a one of a kind. He never grew up and I in many ways admired him for it. He never took life too seriously and lived life to enjoy it to the fullest. Greg always had a good time no matter what he was doing and made sure everyone around him did the same. His antics and jokes will be missed as well as his laugh and smile that accompanied them. I knew Greg for 10 years and never heard him say a negative comment toward anyone or treat anyone anyway but friendly. He had a good heart and everyone that knew him knew that. There wasn't a place in this world he could go and not make a friend. I will miss Greg dearly. I will always call him my friend and I will miss his goofing off but will cherish all the Saturdays and Sundays we spent watching the Dawgs and Falcons and meeting for lunch only for it to turn into dinner too. I am still in shock that he is no longer with us and cannot believe that he is gone. My heart goes out to Elaine and Madison and the rest of Greg's family. Take solace in knowing that Greg loved you dearly. God and the rest of heaven better get ready because they now have the ultimate prankster up there with them. God bless the entire family and all of Greg's friends.

“ Greg Milsaps was one of a kind. Even though I only knew him for a short period of time, I see now that it was my loss not to have gotten to know him better, I felt like the future of our friendship was starting to grow. There wasn't a time that I called Greg that he didn't take the time to talk with me or answer whatever questions I had, whether it be about softball or life in general. I last spoke to Greg on Wednesday night and I will forever remember that call. To his family and friends I pray that God give you the strength to pull through this tough time.

“ To Greg's family, I am very sorry to hear of Greg's passing. Greg and my son Jimmy played Little League baseball in Marietta together. I remember Greg as a very gregarious boy, always had smile and a twinkle in his eye. It has been years since those days, but memories are ever present. May the Lord give comfort in your loss.

“ We are all stunned by your sudden and untimely passing. Many of us who knew you well can say you are truly the best friend anyone could ever have. I will forever cherish the countless hours I have spent with you through the years. I have nothing but fond and happy memories of you. Your relentless antics and pranks kept all who knew you entertained and amused. You always lived your life "Full Throttle", with passion and appeared to enjoy every step of the way. You reminded us all that we are but little boys who still love to play. I am still in disbelief you have departed this world as I sit fighting off my tears of emotion while looking at your picture and writing this. You will truly be passionately missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing you. May God comfort and always bless Elaine and Madison. Farewell my brother and may you rest in peace and be called to the glory of God!
