“ To the family of Greg, words cannot express how much my heart goes out to you. May you find peace and comfort thru family and friends who love you dearly as well as all of us who are continually praying that you gain the strength to endure. (Revelation 21:3 & 4 and Romans 12:12)

“ Denny and Joyce:
Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers at this really tough and painful time.
I realize that words often seem inadequate at a time like this but please know that others are around you to try and provide support. Wishing strength and a sense of peace for you and yours as you grieve...

“ Our sympathy and prayers are with you at this difficult time. We lost our 32 year old daughter Katie a little over a year ago and understand few words can make up for your loss. Hopefully you will have the serenity of knowing he has moved to a peaceful and loving place.

“ My prayers are with you at this time, Mr. and Mrs. Allen. I had the honor of spending many hours with Greg, as a late teen and as an adult. Greg was always respectful, gentle, intelligent, humorous, caring and loyal. His creativity and maturity were beyond his years. I always knew I had a true friend with Greg. I pray for peace for your family, the peace that only God can provide. I will cherish the time that I had with this bright young person that was like a part of my family.

“ Denny and Joyce,

My heart goes out to you and your family. Greg was truly blessed to have two parents that loved and cared about him like you guys did. You are wonderful loving people and know that your empty heart can filled with the joyous memories that y'all had as a family. I will continue to pray for you and your family. - Concetta Murphy

“ Well I really don't know what else to say that everyone else hasn't already said. Greg was a great person who always did his best to make you laugh smile and just have a good time. I'm going to miss all the times we had shredding the streets in our skateboards. But atleast we will all have the memories we got to share with him. God speed my brother I'm going to miss you dude.

“ I met Greg almost 10 years ago when J.R. and I started dating. He was without a doubt one of the funniest people that I have ever met. He was giving, loving and really great friend. I always loved being around him and I will treasure the memories that we shared. I know that I could have always counted on Greg to be there for me and to make me smile. My hurt hearts because he is gone, but I will always smile when I think about him. I loved you very much, Greg. You were like a brother to me. I know that your soul is at peace now.

“ I knew Greg in High School and was always very fond of him. He was one of the funniest, smartest people I knew and my friends would always pick on me because I would blush and get excited every time he would come into the room or talk about him a lot. He was just that kind of guy. I am so sad to hear about this loss and the family are in our thoughts.

Rosie Gillespie - August 06, 2013 at 10:44 AM “ Writing this makes me think of how Greg could never write ANYTHING without it turning into poetry. The simplest idea would always come across as profound. I wish I was half the poet that Greg was, so I could express in words and give justice to just how great he was to everyone he came in contact with. Everyone that knew Greg loved Greg - there was no in between. I feel privileged to have known him and have the memories that I have. A true "old soul", Greg was ahead of his time in understanding the complications of reality and how absurd life can be. We have lost one of the most intelligent people I have ever known. We are all lucky to have known him. I'm gonna miss you man. - JR

“ Greg Allen was a extra special guy. He truly was adored by everyone that he came across. I always searched for the good in people and you didn't have to do that with greg. The best was all greg had to give.. Extremely smart, intelligent and witty Greg made the simpler things in life beautiful & enjoyable. Which isnt easy. I think I could go on and on all night, everyone lucky enough to have been in gregs life knows we lost a incredibly honorable youngman.

“ I haven't seen Greg since high school, but to hear such horrible news deeply saddens me. I use to skateboard with Greg nearly every day of my eighth, ninth, and tenth grade years of school. He was one of the first true "punk rockers," that I ever met and was just an overall fun and cool guy to hang out with. My thoughts and prayers go out to Greg's family and friends. Rest In Peace, Greg.
