“ Ken was the nicest, kindest gentleman I have known. He always would wave to me or stop and talk for a while. In the summer he brought me cucumbers from the garden which was so very nice. We'd talk about how he was doing and if everything was ok. He always had a positive word no matter how he was feeling.

Sending prayers of comfort to you Kris and your mother. May your memories of your father and husband sustain you through your sorrow. God has called a beautiful soul home.
