

Helina Dagmawi

November 3, 2010 - November 3, 2013

Helina Dagmawi, 3, of Atlanta died Sunday, November 3, 2013.

Funeral Services will be held 11:00 a.m. Thursday at Holy Cross Catholic Church in Atlanta with Rev. Richard Tibbetts officiating.

Helina is survived by mother, Tizeta Tadesse, and father Dagem Tsegaye of Atlanta.

Our gift from God, and bundle of joy, Helina Dagmawi entered our world on November 3, 2010. A beam of sunshine she was with her unfailing love, happiness and a smile that left a lasting impression in all that crossed her path.

We all looked in awe during the battle of her life. Her precocious courage and graciousness touched all that cared for her- never missing an opportunity to offer the sweetest "thank you" even through her tears.

Our precious and precocious Helina always knew what she wanted and never shied from sharing. And so we believed and trusted when she told us "don't worry....I'm Ok." After a year of unsurpassed courage and resilience, true to form, Helina graduated ahead of time and earned her angel wings on November 3, 2013.

Interment will be in White Chapel Memorial Gardens in Duluth.

Comments

“ Offering my deepest sympathy to the family of little Helina. Imagine a life in a world where all sickness and physical infirmities will be done away with! Gods word the bible assure us at Isaiah 33:24 that there will come a time when "No resident will say: 'I am sick.'" Also, Isaiah 25:8 promises that God will actually "swallow up death forever." Death is never easy to face, especially when its such a young life like that of dear Helina, but I hope this will bring the family a little comfort.
