Comments

“ Jean was a highly respected and well-liked member of the U.S. Forest Service. I have know Jean since 1972, when he and I both worked in South Carolina. Even though our careers went in different directions, he was always willing to help out and provide encouragement. I got to know him even better after we retired. I am sorry that I did not have more time to spend with Jean. He was a good man.

“ Lessons from my Dad

While I was growing up:

- > My Dad taught me to know who you are -- and to be both proud and true to that.
- > My Dad showed me how to stand on, and by, your own unwavering principals, even when things get tough.
- > My Dad helped me realize that unconditional love from your family is the foundation for self confidence and courage as you venture into the world.

As I was finding my way into manhood:

- > My Dad showed me how to have respect for others, and treat them as you would want them to treat not you, but rather treat those you love.
- > My Dad taught me to choose your words carefully -- to say what you mean and mean what you say.
- > My Dad demonstrated to me by example to put your beliefs, your family, and your friends FIRST -- and all else second.

In his final weeks, and even now after he is gone from this world:

- > My Dad helped understand how to not let anyone, anything, or any circumstance EVER dampen your sense of humor.
- > My Dad showed me how to be strong -- not for yourself, but for those that you are lucky enough to have love you.
- > My Dad taught me to tell those close to you that you love them -- just because.
- > My Dad would want us to give hugs, real hugs, to those you love . . . for life here is too, too short.

“ My very deepest sympathies to all of you who knew and loved Jean Paul. I was stunned and saddened to hear about his death and will always remember his infectious laugh and good nature. I still smile when I think of one afternoon in 1958 when, up in Memere's kitchen on Regan Street, he made popcorn while singing one of his favorite songs of that summer, "My Baby Loves Western Movies". His special brand of sound effects was hilarious. His popcorn was pretty good too! In our infrequent contacts in more recent yars, it still seemed that his life was well lived and well loved.

“ Marnie, Donna, Scott, Shawn, Anne Marie and Steve, I was so sad to hear of Jean Paul's passing - the man you knew as husband, father or brother and my cousin. Since hearing the news of his death last evening, I've had so many memories of our early childhood and early teens together - playing in the yard on Regan St., swimming and picnics at Lake Denison, as altar boys at Holy Rosary, and at boarding school in Maine. And, of course, later in life whenever he and Marnie returned to visit Massachusetts, the inevitable lobster and clam dinners. This may be a little longer than the typical note on a sympathy card but I just wanted to share what I've been thinking and feeling. My sincere condolences to you all. Love, Art

“ I am so very sorry to hear of Krugy's passing. I was a Forest Service coworker of Krugy's and will forever remember him for his professionalism, expertise, humor, and the support and encouragement he gave me. I know how much Marnie, his "kids", and his grandkids meant to him because he talked about them often. My sincerest sympathy to Marnie and the family.
