

Jenna Ellen Charlton Wall

July 30, 1980 - June 23, 2016

Jenna Ellen Charlton Wall, 35, of Powder Springs, GA passed away Thursday, June 23rd, 2016.

A Funeral Service will be held 2:00 p.m. Tuesday at West Cobb Church in Marietta with Dr. Ken Williams and Dr. Dave Mayo officiating. There will be a private burial for the family.

Jenna was a lifelong resident of Cobb County. She was a 1998 honors graduate from Harrison High School. She graduated in 2002 from UGA with honors. Jenna later attended Mercer University to obtain her teaching certificate in Elementary and Special Education. She was currently working on a program to add Target to her resume. Jenna grew up playing softball, basketball, and track. Jenna's first career was with Enterprise where she managed a branch and then went into corporate sales. In 2010, her heart lead her to teaching. She has taught 5th, 4th, and finally felt settled on teaching kindergarten at Kemp Elementary. She put her heart and soul into everything she touched.

Survivors include her husband, Jerrod Wall of Dallas, GA; her two sons, Maddox and Mason Wall of Powder Springs; her parents, Skip and Sheri Charlton of Powder Springs; two sisters, Kara McDaniel and her husband, Andy of Dallas, Anslie DeFalco and her husband, Anthony of Ohio; grandmother, Virginia Power of Acworth, GA; several aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces and cousins.

Family will receive friends 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. Monday at Mayes Ward-Dobbins Funeral Home in Marietta.

In Lieu of flowers, an account has been established at any Wells Fargo Bank. Please state donations for the "Children of Jenna Charlton Wall". Memorial Fund

“ I went to high school with Jenna- we were on many of the same teams and in almost every single class together. She was somebody I always admired, and the Charlton family was always so kind to mine. The world has lost somebody very special. We will be praying for your family and will never forget Jenna.

“ I had the blessing to serve with Jenna on the food crew at Blue Skies last summer. We had a wonderful week ministering to those families, and Jenna was tireless in making sure that every detail was taken care of. I shared a condo with her family, and she was so positive, encouraging and fun. It was a memorable time, and she made an impact on all she came into contact with. She will be greatly missed.

Beth Yates - June 29, 2016 at 03:46 PM

“ I was given the great honor of meeting Jenna last year at the Blue Skies mission trip with our church. Jenna led the entire food crew that fed a plethora of families who were suffering from pediatric cancer. Each meal was carefully planned and detailed with each having special themes and flair that left the participant without doubt that she put all of her heart into giving those families a special time together at each meal they were given. She buzzed busily around that treat, never stopping, never resting and tirelessly worked without complaint on the beaming light of that famous smile. She was a joy, and I distinctly remember those characteristics of her after only a week; therefore I cannot imagine how palpable this must be for those closest to her. My continual prayers and condolences are with Jenna's entire family. May you see God's hand through the thick of the storm.

“ Ms. Wall was not only my teacher, but my friend. She was probably the nicest teacher in the grade, it's a shame that her mother in law did what she did. Rest in peace, Ms wall you will be missed.

“ Jenna and I met when we were at Georgia. We took a few classes together, went to a few football games together, and became really good friends. She had a sweet spirit and was so much fun to be around! As we grew closer, I asked Jenna to be a bridesmaid at my wedding in June 2002. Jenna did everything she could to make the weekend before and the day of my wedding as memorable as she could! And she did! The other day I was looking at a note she had given me and it said at the end, "I am glad we are friends!". I will always keep that note as a reminder of how thoughtful Jenna was and how grateful I am to have had her as a bridesmaid at my wedding. I will miss Jenna, her energetic personality, and I will continue to pray for her and her family.

“ I met Jenna years ago and was blessed that my youngest had her during kindergarten camp a few weeks ago. I already had a lump in my throat as I walked him in, but Jenna met us in the hall and was so sweet and just so happy. She greeted my baby with such love, I left feeling completely at peace that he was right where he needed to be. Her smile and sweet spirit will be missed. Her family and precious boys will continue to be in our prayers.

“ My son and I met Jenna a few weeks ago at the Sweet Tea 5K. I told her at the start line that she looked familiar, and we discovered it was through West Ridge. We saw her again at Surge not long after that. I could tell she was a kind soul and my heart aches for her children and family. Rest in peace, Jenna.

“ I first met Jenna in her role as manager of Enterprise in Hiram. Her smile was warm and contagious. At that moment, I had made a life long friend. Our families eventually started a journey group through WRC and we all started having babies, lol. One right after the other. We ate together every Sunday and studied HIS word together. We went to each other's kids birthday parties and sometimes got lucky enough to meet WO the kids. Through the years, we stayed in touch and recently started hanging out again. It was like we had never stopped seeing each other. I have no words to express how much she meant to me or how much she will be missed. I part with quoting a verse she said to me during a life storm of mine: Jeremiah 29:11~ "For I know the plan I have for you", declared the Lord. "Plans to prosper you and not to harm you, to give you future and hope."
Her future on Earth is over, but her eternity in Heaven as just begun.
Love you, Jenna

“ I work with Melissa Jones at Harrison and have coached along side of her for many years. I know that the friendship that they had was very special. I just recently met up with Jenna a few weeks back at the Harrison baseball camp. She was so easy to talk to. We must have sat there 20 minutes just chatting about the boys, work, etc. She has touched so many lives and will be missed!

“ My prayers for comfort, strength and peace for all of Jenna's family and friends, especially her boys and her parents. Our Lord holds the brokenhearted even closer. From the beautiful tributes it is clear she was a wonderful mother who has left a lifetime of memories with her children to carry them through their loss.

“ I met Jenna and her family on a blue skies missions trip a few years ago. I was about to enter my sophomore year as an education major so when I found out she was a teacher, I was instantly excited to get to know Jenna that week. She was always smiling, running about, and serving her own children and the families there. She took time to notice the little things and appreciate their value. Seeing her as a mom to her precious babies will always stick with me. She was raising such loving, empathetic, and independent little guys.... In that short week she convinced me that it was possible to be a passionate woman who teaches well, nurtures a family, and serves others. Jenna impacted my life more than she knew throughout that week and a few other short encounters with her family. As a recent college graduate and first year teacher, I hope to be like Jenna. A courageous, loving, giving, enthusiastic, light for Jesus. She will always stand in my memories as an incredible inspiration of excellence and love.

“ I met Jenna on a Blue Skies mission trip that both of our families served on. I remember how excited she was that they were serving a family who had twin baby boys named Mason and Maddox. She was absolutely tickled pushing their double stroller around. She truly enjoyed giving so much love to others. Two extremely special things about Jenna have always stood out to me. The first was her smile. It wasn't just a pose for pictures, that's how she always looked. You couldn't have a conversation with her without being blessed with her megawatt smile. It was like no other! And second, most importantly, was her adoration and love for her precious boys. They were her entire world. Jenna, you will be missed! Please love on Joey for us!

“ Jenna has been one of my best friends for the past ten years. We met at Enterprise Rent-A-Car and worked together in the corporate accounts department. That work relationship quickly blossomed into an amazing friendship. We have been together for the birth of both of her children. She stood by my side as my matron of honor and supported me through my own divorce. Jenna was one of those friends that it didn't matter how much time has passed. We always picked up right where we left off. I hope to have the impact on this world that she has had in her life. My prayers are with her family especially her sweet boys. I love you Jenna.

“ The first time I met Jenna was in the prayer room at church the summer of 2013. A group of us were praying over a little boy named Joey who had pediatric cancer. He and his family had gone on a retreat with Blue Skies Ministries earlier that summer where Jenna had served as a host. We struck up a conversation and soon found we both had boys that were going into the 1st grade. When she asked what school mine went to and found out it was Kemp Elementary, her eyes lit up as she said, "that's where I'm going to be teaching!" She was so excited! I was amazed how easy she was to talk to. She made such an impression on me that I remember telling my neighbor about how nice the "new 4th grade teacher" was that Kemp was gaining. I was pleasantly surprised when our boys ended up in the same 1st grade class, and then again in 2nd grade. Over the last few years, I would often see Jenna either at school, church, or one of the many places our boys had functions such as martial arts class, the soccer field, or enjoying a fellow classmate's birthday party. Her boys were her heart. Jenna gave everything she had in her to her boys, friends, students, and those she loved like family. Always with a smile. Always kind. She and Joey are now with our Lord and Savior, where they no longer feel pain as we do here on earth. I know she'll send signs to those she loved to let them know she's smiling down on them from above. God bless her boys and may we continually remind them what a strong, kind, and dedicated mother they had in her.

“ I had the fortunate honor to coach Jenna as a Freshman during our illustrious basketball season of 1994. It was my first year of coaching and this crew was coming off a win-less 8th grade season. Jenna and those girls hold a very special place in my heart. Our 6 AM practice was a great time of playing ball and just having fun together. As early as those mornings may have been, having players on my team like Jenna made it beyond bearable, but enjoyable. The positive personality people highlighted by so many of her friends, co-workers and the parents of the students whom she taught was evident to me while she was just a freshman in high school. I am still a teacher at Harrison High School and being able to teach and work with students like Jenna (caring, optimistic, fun-loving, constantly smiling and such a hard worker) is why I enjoy teaching so much. Another joy of teaching is to get to see your former students years after high school and see the fantastic things they have done with their lives. Occasionally seeing Jenna in the grocery store with her sons and having an opportunity to catch up was always a treat for me. It let me know that through the years Jenna had remained true to the person I knew in 1994. In this time of extreme sadness, I thank God for Jenna and positive influence she had on my life.

“ I was a substitute teacher for Jenna at Vaughan, Frey, and Kemp. She would often text me or come in early the day I would be working for her and tell me all about her students and how much she appreciated me taking care of them in her absence. She made her class an exciting place for her students to come learn each day. I had seen her in passing recently, but did not stop to talk to her as she was jogging. I was with my daughter and I told her how she was an awesome teacher and shared with her some stories Jenna had shared with me about her faith. She was a strong Christian woman, awesome Mother & Teacher and a bright light to all who knew her. Whenever I worked for her she would always give sweet comments about what a good job I had done and thanking me above and beyond. Huge loss to our community! Prayers for her sweet boys and family.

“ I first met Jenna when she was doing her student teaching at Vaughan Elementary. Once completed she slipped into the role of being my son's 3rd grade supply teacher when his teacher went out on maternity leave for the rest of the school year. Daniel quickly and soon adored Mrs. Wall and thought the world of her and her teaching style while she was still learning and perfecting her great gift of teaching children. I too came to know Jenna during this time, donating supplies to her to get started for her teaching career; she was always thankful. Daniel was disappointed when he didn't get her as his 4th grade teacher when she landed her first FT teaching job at Vaughan; she too said she was hoping to have him. She later reached out to Daniel and I on getting advice when she was looking to get her boys a bearded dragon, even asked if we had any extra tanks to spare since Daniel has and has had several types of lizards. Through the years we would also continue see her often at West Ridge Church were we both attended and volunteered; we'd always meet up from across the room for hugs and a "how are you?" I always made sure she knew that Daniel loved her and thought she was the best teacher; he really did. The loss of Mrs. Wall has torn Daniel apart and he can't quite understand why someone would do such a thing to a wonderful person as her. I can't either; no one can. Jenna, you first shined your light in my son's life and it spilled over to me and no telling how many countless others. Well done, Thy good and faithful servant. According to us and everyone who knew you, you were taken from us too early, most importantly your boys but those questions and wonders are for God to answer, in HIS time. My prayer and faith in God is that he keep your boys surrounded in His everlasting loving arms. You will have an army here on earth looking out for them! You will be deeply and grievously missed. Much love being sent up to you, your family and boys here.

“ I used to work with Jenna at Enterprise. In fact, she sat right beside me. I remember when she was pregnant with her first. If she was scared she never showed it. Like many of you said, she always had a smile on her face and such a positive outlook on life. Made everything look effortless. I never understood how she did it but looked up to her for it. We will miss her here on Earth but she is in a much better place than we are. I'm sure I can say on behalf of her old Enterprise Family, that we love her and will miss her! Prayers for the family!
