

John Franklin Mulkey

February 7, 1945 - November 5, 2016

John Franklin Mulkey, 71, passed away unexpectedly Saturday, November 5 at his home in Waleska. A native of Marietta, he was born at home to Irene Bramlett and James Edward Mulkey, Sr. As a teen, his family moved to Woodstock and opened the Dixie Inn Restaurant. He later graduated from Cherokee High School in 1962.

John spent his career in the residential construction business working both as an executive at John Wieland Homes and later as a custom homebuilder. He was passionate about sharing his unique life experiences with others through his writing. Two of his books, Metamorphosis and Lessons From The Light were published several years ago.

A loving husband and father, he is survived by his wife Francisca (Frances), his children Deborah Mulkey Herndon of Albany, GA, Beth Mulkey Capogrossi of Marietta and three adoring grandchildren Oliver and Ben Capogrossi and Madeline Houston. He was preceded in death by his beloved granddaughter, Lindsay Houston. He is also survived by his brother Ed Mulkey of Marietta and Cindy Ethridge of Robbinsville, NC.

A celebration of his life is planned at his daughter's home in Marietta on Tuesday 11/8. Donations in his honor may be made to: The Georgia Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, 2302 Park Lake Dr. NE, Suite 210, Atlanta 30305.

“ I want to express my condolences for your dear loss. In such a time as this may you receive needed support from family and friends. I hope the following Bible passages will be of comfort and hope too as they have for me: Psalms 34:18,19, Jeremiah 29:11,12 and Rev. 21:3,4.

“ We were all created in God's image (Genesis1:27). We were created with the desire to live forever. The death of God's son, Jesus, gave all of us hope of resurrection to everlasting life (John 3:16). May this thought from God's Word provide peace during this difficult time.
