

Joyce Glover Jerrel

April 13, 1930 - February 23, 2021

Mrs. Joyce Glover Jerrel age 90 of Marietta passed away February 23 2021.

A memorial service will be held on Wednesday, March 10, 2021 in the Chapel of Mayes Ward-Dobbins Funeral Home in Marietta.

Joyce was born in Providence, Kentucky and moved to Evansville, Indiana where she attended Bosse High School and was honored to serve as the senior class queen. Bosse is where she met her future husband Gene Jerrel. Joyce and Gene were married on December 23, 1950. Their life was put on hold while Gene served in the Korean conflict. Upon his return they began their family giving birth to son Jeffery Jerrel (deceased) and then daughter Jennifer Jerrel Dunn. They then relocated to Marietta for Gene to open and manage Par 56 Golf and Joyce to be the homemaker and to volunteer as a Gray lady at Kennestone Hospital.

Following Gene's retirement as a Golf Professional Joyce sought to reignite her career and accepted employment as a Bailiff with the Cobb County Court System. There she made many enduring friendships that greatly enhanced her senior years.

Joyce was the daughter of Otis and Glenda Glover and grandmother to Jordan Dunn and Paul Jerrel. Joyce knew our Lord Jesus Christ as her personal savior and loved her family with strong will and great passion.

The family will receive friends from 1:00 – 2:00 PM at the funeral home.

Contributions can be made in loving memory of Joyce to the charity of your choice.

“ My husband Thunder and I have many memories of both Joyce and Gene from our church First Methodist Marietta and golf over the years. I especially will have so many great and fun memories of Joyce from our years at Cobb State Court as bailiffs..our daily conversations were always interesting and entertaining . Joyce had such a sparkling personality and could talk about any topic and we would always be laughing too. She also loved our great city of Marietta.. I have missed seeing her.. i will keep all my wonderful memories of her in my heart. Jean Alice Tumlin

“ Joyce was my bailiff when I was elected in 2013. She stayed with our team until she decided to retire, although, she informed me she was not going to turn in her Bailiff Badge because she might come back to work one day! She is still listed as one of my Court's team. I feel fortunate to have worked with Joyce. She knew everyone and could tell me about everyone's personality. I always saw her as kind, considerate, and professional with the public. Years ago when I was an Assistant Solicitor General and then a private Defense Attorney, Joyce was very instrumental in giving me up-to-date information as to what was going on in a court. She will be greatly missed by Cobb County State Court. Judge Marsha Lake

“ In December, 1986, Joyce was my first bailiff that I hired to begin January, 1987. I did not know Joyce and hired her solely on Jimmy Berry’s recommendation. It was a smart move because she had such grace and charm and always a bright smile for everyone. I was working a traffic court at that time and she was able to keep moving and have contact with hundreds of people every week. She helped me to mold a real family unit in that court. She remained there for 9 years and in 1995 we moved up to the jury trial division. It was a big change for me and one I loved but for Joyce not so much. Just sitting and listening to trials was not as much fun. Before long she came to me and asked if she could go to work for Judge Toby Prodggers who was taking my place in the traffic division. I knew she would be happier there and agreed. But we continued to see each other nearly every day because she was truly part of our work family. She went to lunch with us often. Came to my home with Gene. Even when I retired she kept in touch on a sporadic basis. I knew when Gene died that she would not be far behind as they were attached at the hip. What a delight she has been to so many lives.

“ I worked with Ms. Joyce at State Court and just seeing her made me smile. We always discussed Cover Girl makeup! She was a lovely lady and a joy to be around. May God bless her family.

“ Any day that Joyce was working as a bailiff was a fun day for everyone. I was a bailiff in another courtroom and always enjoyed seeing her. She brightened the day for everyone and I know you all will miss her greatly.

“ Ms. Joyce was one of the very first bailiff's I ever had. She was such a joy to be around, and made the work day seem less harsh. She was so sweet to me, and I will never forget her. My deepest condolences to her family.
