

Kimberly "Kim" Davis-Day

August 11, 2011

Kimberly "Kim" Davis Day, 52, of Marietta, GA, passed away on Thursday, August 11, 2011.

Kim grew up in Raleigh, NC and graduated from Millbrook High School in Raleigh and Appalachian State University in Boone, NC. Following college, Kim worked with EF Hutton, and later, Solomon Brothers, before retiring to raise her two children. Kim was a member of The Church of the Apostles in Atlanta, GA.

Kim is survived by her husband, Tim Day; two sons, Davis and Cameron Day of Marietta, GA; her parents, Willis and Jeanette Davis of Raleigh, NC; her sister, Kelly Isaacs, and two nephews, Michael and Christopher Isaacs of Holly Springs, NC.

A memorial service will be held on Sunday, August 14 at 2:30 p.m. at First United Methodist Church, Marietta, GA with Dr. Charles Sineath and Rev. Elaine Wilder officiating. A reception will immediately follow the service at the church. The interment will be in Scenic Memorial Gardens Mausoleum, Wilkesboro, North Carolina.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to a Scholarship Fund for Davis & Cameron at: Edward Jones, 376 Powder Springs Street, Suite 150, Marietta, GA 30064, 770-427-3048.

Mayes Ward-Dobbins Funeral Home and Crematory in Marietta will be handling the arrangements.

“ My biggest adult memory of Kim is that she sought me out and found me on Facebook. We lost touch after graduation- I moved to Virginia Beach- virtually away from everyone. About two years ago- Kim "friended" me. We begin chatting and it was as if no time had passed between us at all. It is because of her that I was able to reconnect with so many wonderful college friends and KDs. She was the kind gracious good person I knew and loved in college-- My only regret is that I did not get to see her-- But I know I will one day--- I am more blessed for having Kim in my life-- AOT Kim
