

Martha H. Darden

November 30, 1928 - February 4, 2018

Martha Hunter Jamison Darden, of Marietta Georgia, passed away peacefully on Sunday, February 4, 2018 after a long bout with congestive heart failure.

She was born and raised in Bowling Green, Missouri, the third of six children. After excelling in high school, Martha went on to earn her BS in Zoology at the University of Missouri. When her youngest child entered high school, Martha began her career as a middle school science teacher, quickly earning local and district accolades. She married Samuel P. Darden in 1980 and they became avid travelers, venturing from the top of Machu Picchu to the Great Wall of China.

Surviving are her husband Sam, her daughters Missy Jamison, Joan Jamison (Bill Bolduc), Cynthia (German) Correa, her stepchildren Kimberly Pampanin and David (Lisa) Darden. Grandchildren include Taylor Darden, Emma Pampanin, Sarah Darden, Mark Pampanin, Martha Luz Correa-Jamison and Aron Correa-Jamison. She also leaves behind two beloved siblings, Fred (Bunnie) Hunter and Marion Shippee, her sister-in-law Joan Darden, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Mayes Ward Dobbins will be handling the funeral arrangements. Visitation will be held from 3:00-4:00PM Saturday, February 10th. A memorial service will be held immediately following at 4:00 in the Mayes Ward Dobbins Chapel.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Tranquility House Kennesaw Hospice.
