

R. Marvin Ingram, Jr.

October 17, 1937 - March 29, 2014

R. Marvin Ingram, Jr. of Marietta, 76, passed away on March 29, 2014. Marvin was born in Columbus, GA and raised in Daytona Beach, FL where he graduated from Seabreeze High School. He was preceded in death by his parents, R. Marvin Ingram, Sr. and Margie Pitts Ingram.

He graduated from Florida State University and from the Harvard Business School's Program for Management Development. He was a vice president in corporate lending and commercial real estate for Citizens and Southern National Bank (now Bank of America). After his banking career, he was active in commercial real estate development and textile manufacturing. He and his wife, Martha, owned Firstworld Travel of Atlanta, a corporate-based travel management company, for 26 years.

He was commander of Sigma Nu fraternity at Florida State; two-term president of The Travel Industry Association of Georgia; president of the FSU Alumni Club of Atlanta; president of Skat International Atlanta; president of SE/Uniglobe Franchise Owners Association, and was on various travel industry boards.

He was an avid Florida State football fan, attending games for over 25 years. He was a dedicated golfer at Marietta Country Club and a gourmet chef. He and his wife traveled all over the world, including over 40 cruises.

He is survived by his wife, Martha McKinney Ingram as well as three children and their spouses: daughter, Laura Ingram of Austell; son R. Marvin (Trey) Ingram III and his wife Christine of Mount Pleasant, SC; and daughter Amy Pope and her husband Matt of Marietta plus a sister, Marie Towner of Houston, TX. He had five grandchildren: Meghan White of Vinings, Noah, Nicholas and Phoebe Pope of Marietta, and Parker Ingram of Mount Pleasant, SC.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to the Pulmonary Fibrosis Foundation. <http://pulmonaryfibrosis.donorpages.com/Tribute/RMarviningram> or by mail: Pulmonary Fibrosis Foundation, 230 East Ohio Street, Suite 304, Chicago, IL 60611-3201, Tribute: R. Marvin Ingram.

Services will be Tuesday, April 1 at 2PM at Mayes Ward Dobbins on Church St., Marietta, GA.

Family will receive friends one hour prior to the service. Friends and family are invited to gather for a reception following the service.

www.mayeswarddobbins.com 770-428-1511

Events

APR Visitation 01:00PM - 02:00PM

1

Historic Marietta Chapel

180 Church Street NE, Marietta, GA, US, 30060

APR Memorial Service 02:00PM

1

Historic Marietta Chapel

180 Church Street NE, Marietta, GA, US, 30060

Comments

“ My deepest sympathy to the loss of your dear loved one please be assured that this is not God's purpose for to be in pain. Psalms 34:18,19, John 5:28,29, & Rev. 21:3,4, are comforting and supply hope for me and my wish is that it does the same for you.

rl - April 02, 2014 at 09:21 PM

“ I extend my heartfelt sympathy to the Ingram family. May those precious memories of your dear loved one R. Marvin be foremost in your hearts and minds along with this wonderful promise that Jesus made at John 5:28,29. Again, my sincere condolences.

MB - March 31, 2014 at 07:06 PM

“ To Martha and all the kids, I extend my deepest sympathy. Marvin was a colleague for many years and a wonderful friendship grew from this. Marvin was just that kind of guy who always seemed happy and cheerful and made others feel it also. He was my sponsor into Atlanta SKAL and a great mentor. We enjoyed lots of social occassions together and I will forever have fond memories of him and his wonderful family. May our Lord comfort you at this time and may HIS Grace see you through this journey.

Love, Diane and Martin Denney

diane denney - March 30, 2014 at 07:43 PM

“ Marvin is a great man! Is! Not was!

I've seen a lot of death in my years! In the midsts of death, I have always wanted the world/earth to stop spinning for a moment - because I could no longer touch/hear someone special to me...the world should stop - it must stop! But, I've learned, with age, that's immature/wishful thinking.

I hope everyone takes a second to reflect upon their own mortality...reflect upon what the earth has lost in the wonderful man, Marvin.

Marvin, unbeknownst to him, was a father figure/mentor to me. It's said, "thievery is the most sincere form of flattery" - ha, I have stolen - every damned chance I could - from Marvin! If that saying is true - well...I flattered the hell out of Marvin! Steal from the best...Marvin is the best! I even wanted to dress like him...

Marvin is a great man: mind, body, soul, and numerous talents/determinations - we ALL know it's true!

Celebrate what he taught. Celebrate what he gave. Celebrate him...

I celebrate what he has taught me, given or stolen, and I will NEVER forget to remain true to his teachings, or Pops... Marvin is a great man...and, he will be missed!

Scott White - March 30, 2014 at 07:33 PM

“ I met Marvin during our mutual tenure with Genesis GDS.
Marvin was a great guy who always had an encouraging word.
I will miss his emails

Nick

Nicholas Christopher - March 30, 2014 at 04:50 PM

“ A brother of Sigma Nu,not to be forgotten,many great memories of bygone days.we'll miss you Seal.

Jack sweeney

Jack Sweeney - March 31, 2014 at 11:03 AM