

Royce A. Cygan

April 14, 1940 - December 12, 2017

Royce A. Cygan, 77, passed away Tuesday, December 12, 2017, surrounded by her family. Although her work here is finished, she will always be remembered by the many lives she touched. Her witty and outgoing personality brought her much success throughout her life. She brought warmth and joy to her family as a present and compassionate Mother, Nana, and most recently, Great-grandmother.

Royce was born in Utica, NY, where she spent her childhood and early adulthood. She is a graduate of Whitesboro Central High School in Whitesboro, NY where she excelled in sports and was a member of AB sorority. She moved to several states during her adult life before settling in Marietta, GA in 1984. During her career, Royce excelled as office manager before retiring to spend the rest of her years close to those she loved including her dog, Kylie Rose.

Royce was predeceased in death by her mother, Phyllis Heisner, her father Dr. Roy Ainsworth and her sister Nancy-Gail Schmidt. She leaves behind daughters Wendy Griffin and Phyllis Stanek, both of Marietta, son Robert Stanek (Dayra) of Wisconsin, grandchildren Keith Griffin (Liezal), Courtney Griffin, Reagan Stanek, Hampton Henderson and great-granddaughter Zoey Griffin.

Visitation with her family will be held Wednesday, Dec. 20, 2017 from 5-7 pm

The funeral service will be Thursday, Dec. 21 at 11:00 am in the chapel of the funeral home.

“ Royce was a neighbor of mine at Wynne's Ridge and is remembered fondly by everyone. She really cared about her community and her neighbors, she was proactive in voicing her ideas in the interest of getting things done. Thank you Royce for being a great neighbor. You will be missed by many. Cara McCarthy
