

Theresa Hall

March 20, 1951 - January 8, 2021

Theresa Hall, of Smyrna, GA, passed away on January 8, 2021.

Theresa is survived by her daughter Sarah Hall Smith (married to Jeffrey Scott Smith), of Atlanta, GA.; and her son Frederick Hall, of Las Vegas, NV.; grandson Sidney A. Hall Smith,; her sisters Peggy Rast of Savannah, GA., Shirley Williams of Walterboro, SC., Gail Lemacks of Walterboro, SC., Jackie Smith Rebenski of NJ.; and her brother Conrad Smith of Walterboro, SC.

Theresa followed the simple principal of living with purpose, making the most of every moment, and paying forward kindness. She had a passion for music which she used to touch the lives of others through directing choirs, teaching, and playing music. She was a loving mother, caring sister, trusted mentor, and most importantly a friend. She will be missed but still ever present in our hearts.

Her parting words to us sum up the journey of her life:

“Celebrate – I’m Home”

“ Theresa, my big sister. You have always been there for me. From the time I was a young teenager spending nights with you ,before you married to even after. I cherish the times you came and spent time with me , Murphy and the kids. I chose you to be Jasons godmother, you stood by my side as his life began and you were by my side when his life ended. You were a genuine, loving person whom I loved dearly. Life will never be the same without you but my life was so much better because of you. Fly high my sweet sister , fill the heavens with your music. I look forward to the day we will be together again. Your sister, Shirley

“ We traversed some really tough roads the past few years and as your guide I was so very pleased you were able to put in to practice what you learned to be able to share better your life as the truly incredible person you were. You asked me one time why I stuck with you, well it was my honor and privilege to do so. We laughed, cried, you made me sing as you played the piano, such wonderful special memories to cherish. Love and miss you Maureen Roe

“ Theresa, you were a huge part of my life. You have really been my anchor for the past six and a half years, and I would be feeling completely lost at sea if I weren't keeping you in my heart. You helped me to learn to live life on life's terms, and you were with me and helped me through some hard times and learning important life lessons. I will forever be grateful to you, and I will always cherish our friendship. I'm going to miss most of all listening to you play piano and playing music with you. Those were the days. I love you so much, sweet friend. Till we meet again...Geri Frazier
