“ Memaw , I will miss you terribly . You are the best Great-Grandmother anyone could ever ask for . I remember the last time I saw you like it was yesterday . As soon as we got there , we got the normal hello hug , and the "hello my angles" , and a huge plate of lettuce and mayo sandwiches , a little secret , I still love those , I still eat them to this day . But Papa was waiting for you to come back and stand by his side , and you did such a wonderful job before you left us , you stayed strong . But I love you so much , and I miss you terribly and you will always be in our thoughts .

“ Memaw, I am sad that you are gone. That I did not get to share more of my life with you. I am glad that your in a better place. A place where there is no more pain and no more crying. Glad that you get to me reunited with the many loved ones who have gone before. I know that we can look forward to being with you someday. I was singing a song the other day that spoke of being homesick for a country I have never been too. That sums it up nicely. Welcome Home Memaw. Love - Troy

“ God Bless your heart & soul Memaw. I am here sitting at the table in your house. You've trained me well enough to know over the years that when I come here to visit I should be ready to eat & eat & eat. Being the machine that I am we have forever known harmony together in that respect. You were always ready to feed & I sure was ready to eat your great southern cooking. I Love You my lady & I know you are safe & sound reunited with the true love of your life. Until the day we meet again I'll be missing you deeply in my heart.

“ Memaw, I'm sorry that you're gone but happy that you are reunited with Poppa and blessed to have had you for so many years! It was a long struggle and I'm saddened that you had to endure all that but pleased that everyone tried to make you as comfortable as possible through out your ordeal. We will miss you and all your stories, so of which I know by heart. Please rest in peace, know that you are in a better place and look down upon us all and guide as you have always tried to do! Love and miss you, hugs to Poppa!

“ Memaw I am going to miss you so much words cannot even describe. I am so blessed to have known a woman as great as you. It was a joy to spend your last few years of your life getting so close again like when I was younger. That is what made this so hard to watch you leave, I know that you are now in a better place and you are now reunited with papa and that is where you have been wanting to be for 10 months. The night before you passed away you would hold my hand so tight and not let go and that I hope helped you feel safe in your final journey. You were loved and will always be loved in our hearts I miss you so much

“ Oh how she made us laugh with her story about driving over that stone wall when her brakes went out. No one could tell a story like Memaw. What a treasured life she had. And I'm glad to have been a part of it. Love to all my family.

“ Aunt Virgie will surely be missed, but knowing she is once again with Uncle Hugh- where she has always wanted to be-heals the hurt. I thank God everyday for the strong women He put into my life as role models and Aunt Virgie was one of those. I will always cherish her! I love all of you!
